RACE WAR IN TEXAS.

Nine negres and two white men are dead, a race riot is in progress between armed whites and blacks, the state rangers and militia have been called out and the whole of eastern Texas is seething in the throes of hatred against the negro as the result of the murder of two white men Saturday near Hemphill.

At midnight Sunday 150 armed men marched to the jail at Hemphill, and, after overpowering the jailer and guards, took out six negroes. Five were immediately strung up to nearby trees, and the sixth, attempting to escape in flight, was shot down. These negroes were Ned Williams, Jerry Evans, Will Johnson, Moss Spellman, Cleve Williams and Will Manuel. The oldest was 27 and the youngest 22. They had been jailed, charged with complicity in the murder of Hugh A Dean, a young white farmer.

Yesterday afternoon Burghs Singleton, Hardi Evans and Henry Thomas, all negroes, were found dead on the roadside between Hemphill and Geneva, their bodies riddled with bullets. They; too, were alleged to have had a hand in the plot to kill Dean.

Following the disclosures yesterday morning, the farmers of the vicinity armed themselves with rifles and shotguns and pistols and started on a systematic hunt after every negro of known bad tendencies.

At the same time pistols and other weapons began to be seen in the hands of negroes and the county peace officers found they were powerless to cope with the situation. Hurried appeals were made to the governor, and a guard of Rangers was ordered to the scene.

This was the condition when the news went boardcast that Aaron Johnson, another white farmer, had been shot down while sitting on his porch with his wife and baby. His brains and blood were spattered over them. His wife, crazed at the act of the negroes, gave chase, screaming with all her might.

White men, raiding the countryside for negroes, heard her. When they reached her she was sitting beside the body of her husband, insane. It was then that the whites men went forth and soon the crack of their pistols portended that the death had been visited on someone.

Later the bodies of Singleton, Evans and Thomas were found. Already charged with having a hand in the death of Dean, the three negroes met summary vengeance when they encountered the white men.

Johnson's death increased the tensity of the situation. The three dead negroes were known to be pals of a fourth; this fourth was searched for and not found—the officers had beat the avengers to him.

Captured in a cornfield, the negro, Perry Price, was spirited to San Augustine after making a confession that he had been given $5 by Robert Wright, Johnson's brother-in-law, to kill Johnson. Wright was then arrested, and is now in jail at Center, Tex. The jail is guarded heavily, as the rumor has gone forth that a mob of white men have captured a Houston east and west Texas train, and is forcing the engineer to run to Center in order that they may take Wright and hang him.

The condition of frenzied hatred against the negro came as the result of the shooting of a white man by negroes a week ago. At a negro dance Saturday a week ago William Stimson, a white man, had a row, ending in his being killed with a razor. Two negroes were arrested for the crime. Last Saturday night Hugh Dean, one of the best-known young whites farmers, was also shot at a negro dance. It was proven that he was merely riding by when drunken negroes set on him and stabbed him to death. Six negroes were arrested and put in the Hemphill jail. These were the six lynched, a seventh is still at large and a reward of $550 is out for him.

CATERPILLARS STOP TRAIN

A dispatch from St. John N, B, says an army of caterpillars stopped a freight train in York county, between Tracy and Cook stations, on the Canadian Pacific Railway Line, between Fredericton Junction and McAdam. The worms, in a dense mass, started to cross the track, when a heavy freight train ran into them, but soon was stalled. Three times in a distance not greater than a mile the train was stopped by the pests. The train crew were forced to use the shovels to clear the track. They report that there were millions of caterpillars, and that they had eaten almost every green thing in sight, and had wrought particular havoc to poplar trees. More than an hour was spent in getting the train past the spot, and it was only by shoveling the caterpillars off the line and piling up gravel that the trainmen succeeded in overcoming the difficulties. The caterpillars have become a pest in many parts of the province.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 23, 1908.

A FORCE of add tional marines has been sent to the isthmus in order to avert an outbreak during the coming elections. By June 27 there will be a fighting force of United States marines on the isthmus, amounting to 1250 officers and men. It is given out that they will be scattered throughout the isthmus to prevent the intimidation of voters, but as a matter of fact they will be used to force the election of the men favored by the United States government. This it will be remembered was done in the Cuban election.

THE REPUBLICAN business depression continues and workingmen are hunting a job instead of the job hunting them. With men out of work wages naturally decline and consumption of luxuries, at at least, decreases, and many even suffer for necessities. Are not these conditions good evidence that the high tariff does not insure prosperity, in spite of the boast of the republican leaders that protection produces prosperity? The republican full dinner pail is obliged to be filled with free soup in many instances.

ON THE day Mr. Taft was nominated for president the Philippine Assembly passed by a vote of 57 a 15 a resolution expressing the desire to obtain immediate independence. But it will be a cold day in August before this country, "the home of the brave and the land of the free," gives them their liberty for which they fought Spain for nearly four hundred years.

MR. LEWIS NIXON, a native of Virginia and former leader of Tammany Hall, says that Mr. Taft as a candidate will grow weaker every day until election, and that the democrats should have no difficulty in carrying the country. Mr. Nixon is a pretty shrewd politician and it is hoped his prophecy may prove correct.

THE REPUBLICAN programme for tariff revision is to revise it higher, by imposing maximum tariff rates above the present high rates, which will be called the minimum rates. How trusts and combines must be laughing in their sleeves, and how willingly they will "come down" to carry out such a programme.

WHAT has become of Mr. John Hays Hammond, of California and Massachusetts, who brought himself out as a republican candidate for vice president? Did he get lost in Chicago together with his boomlet?

From Washington.

Washington, June 23.

By a dispatch printed today it was made to appear that the Panama government had recalled her minister to the United States, Senor Arengo, and that Mejia Salvador had been appointed to succeed Arengo at Washington. Senor Arengo says that story is due to a queer mix-up in cabling. He says he has not been recalled, and that Senor Mejia, the Salvadorean minister to Washington, who has been on a visit to his home, has started on his return trip to this city. That announcement led to the misunderstanding.

The special service squadron, consisting of the battleships Maine and Alabama has entered upon the second leg of their round the world journey, according to dispatches received by the bureau of navigation today. It left Honolulu yesterday for Guam, the next point en route for the Philippines. The special service squadron left San Francisco more than a week ago and will, among other things, go over in a general way the course to be followed by the battleship fleet when it leaves on June 9.

With the hope that at the last moment he will be able to raise $10,000 necessary to complete arrangements for the dash, Commander R. E. Peary, U. S. N., according to private letters to his friends here, express his fourth journey in search of the north pole to begin July 1. On that date, the good ship Roosevelt will sail out of New York harbor for Halifax, where the explorer and the faithful negro Henson will board the vessel for the far north. Peary expects to reach Smith's Passage before winter comes on and from that point to crowd his way up into the Arctic waters next summer for the final dash. The commander already holds the record for having been the fartherest north.

Receivers were today appointed for the administration of the affairs of the Trades Union, of this city. The assets are listed at $40,000 with liabilities of $23,000. The petition is voluntary and is signed by James L. Finney, as president, and Timothy M. Ring, as secretary of the union.

Rear Admiral Hemphill, commanding the Asiatic squadron of the Pacific fleet, has arrived off Shanghai with his flagship Rainbow and the Cleveland, Denver and Concord.

A special reward of $3,000 has been offered by Chief Inspector McMillan, of the Postoffice Department, for the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who committed the theft and rifling of a pouch of registered mail at Kansas City, Mo., on June 6. This reward is the largest ever offered on a similar case.

Will Not Be a Candidate.

Chicago, June 23.—In a statement made public today John Mitchell, former president of the United Mine Workers' of America, formally declined to run for the nomination for governor of Illinois. Mitchell also put a quietus on all efforts to get him to run for second place on the democratic ticket with Bryan. Ill health, it is said, makes it inadvisable for him to become involved in any political agitation.

Shouting "Down with the meat trust, we'd rather starve than buy meat of extortioners," hundreds of bare-headed, scantily clad women paraded the Ghetto district of Brooklyn today and only the united efforts of nearly all the police reserves in the borough was sufficient to prevent serious raids on the retail shops.

During a severe storm in Wilson county, N. C., lightning struck a country church where services were in progress and killed Mr. and Mrs. Walter Linderman, while their infant child in Lindenman's arms was unhurt. Hail accompanied the storm and did $100,000 damage to the tobacco crop in that county.

The greater portion of the town of Three Rivers, which lies about midway betweed Montreal and Quebec, was destroyed by fire yesterday. Over 800 buildings, including many of the best in the town, have been destroyed. The loss will amount to several millions. It is learned that the president's son Theodore will be employed this summer by the United States Steel Corporation.

The reported assassination of Abdul Aziz, the Sultan of Morocco, is unconfirmed.

BOLTED AT THE ALTAR.

Daniel Mathews, aged 24, the "most bashful man in Illinois," avoided the altar for the fourth time in Jerseyville Sunday night. Rev. J. H. Jones and 150 guests waited for an hour and a half at the church for him to appear and become the husband of Miss Mary Frazier, but Mathews was elsewhere. Later Daniel said he wanted to be married more than anything else on earth; but that something—he does not know what—prevented him from getting there.

Miss Frazier admitted she was willing to give the bashful one another chance. They attempted to overcome his timidity yesterday with a private ceremony. The first time Mathews promised to go before the minister was two years ago, when he was to marry Mrs. Mary Miller at Rosedale, Jersey county. He failed her. A week later he again was led to the altar in Rosedale to marry the same lady. He ran away and took the first train out of Rosedale for Jerseyville. The next time when Daniel went to the post for the race of matrimony was on Sunday, June 7, when he was to have been married to Miss Frazier. He bolted before the barrier was sprung and stayed away until his bashfulness died out. Then he again took up his wooing and all went well until, her anger appeased, Miss Frazier consented to try it again Sunday.

HEARING RESUMED.

The Corporation Commission in Richmond today resumed the hearing of the application of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac railway for permission to charge excess rates for fares from such point along its lines where tickets are offered for sale, and in cases when passengers do not obtain tickets. It is held that many persons board the trains at points at which tickets can be purchased, but fail to get tickets, and that because of the heavy travel the passengers are able to reach their destination and alight before the conductors can get to them. The company is thus made to lose considerably. If the company is allowed to charge excess fares in such cases the loss will not be so heavy.

Judge A. S. Hall has been appointed receiver of the Buckingham County Bank. Up to this time nothing has been seen or heard from Allen K. Fawcett, the absconding cashier.

Roland T. Bryarly, of Winchester, and Miss Eddie Sue Bodow, daughter of Mrs. Agnes McCamp Bodow, of Roanoke, were married at the bride's home in Roanoke on Saturday.

The State Board of Education will meet in Richmond Friday to take up the matter of distributing the pension fund, to consider the location of several agricultural schools provided for by the last general assembly and to fill a vacancy in the city of Danville.

Mentally unbalanced from illness and despondency, James O. Dozier, aged forty-nine, committed suicide Sunday at Driver, near Suffolk, by slashing his throat with a razor. Dozier was sent to a Norfolk hospital last week, but escaped and returned home.

Courtney Thompson, a Western Union messenger boy, yesterday afternoon ran his bicycle into a buggy driven by Dr. S. B. Moon, in Richmond, receiving injuries from which he will die. He was hurled to the ground and his skull was crushed beneath the horse's hoofs.

Mr. A. O. Walker, formerly of Orange county, and who represented that county in the constitutional convention, but who for some years has been living at Union Springs, Ala., and was postmaster there, murdred his wife recently and killed himself. The cause of the deed is unknown.

George Forest, aged twenty-three years, of Washington, D. C., who had been employed for several weeks in Leesburg, committed suicide Saturday afternoon. He cut his throat and then swallowed two ounces of carbolic acid. This was his third attempt at suicide. It is said family troubles led to his act. He had a wife and child in Philadelphia.

The board of visitors in annual session at the Virginia Military Institute yesterday elected Col. Edward West Nichols as superintendent, to succeed Gen. Scott Shipp, who resigned a year ago, after 50 years' connection with the institute as cadet, commandant of cadets and superintendent. Col. Nichols was elected last June, as acting superintendent. Colonel Nichols was born in Petersburg 50 years ago.

Harry C. Ficklet, former editor of the Danville Press, was struck by lightning near Danville Saturday evening. The shock threw him for a considerable distance and left him stunned. When he became conscious the rain was beating on his face. The lower part of his body was temporarily paralyzed, and he lay in the storm for nearly an hour. Mr. Ficklet was painfully hurt, but no permanent injuries are expected to result.

William Manzy, who for the past 10 years has been deputy clerk of the Federal Court of Lynchburg, has been appointed clerk of the U. S. District and Circuit Courts at Danville. He succeeds Major Stanley W. Martin, who has held the position for years, but has been promoted to the clerkship over the same courts at Lynchburg, Charlottesville and Roanoke, succeeding the late William McCauley, of Roanoke. He will make his headquarters at Lynchburg.

A building which was being remodeled in Richmond collapsed yesterday and it was thought that several persons had been killed. The house was occupied by Italians. Two women walked out of the ruin unhurt. A small child on the fourth floor fell with the building and was buried under the tons of debris. He was heard to cry and was rescued with only a few bruises. The building had been used as a saloon and was being converted into a moving picture show.

TO USE THE PHONOGRAPH.

William Jennings Bryan will use the phonograph in the coming campaign. Some time ago he was approached with the suggestion that he make some records for the Edison phonograph.

The result was that a special expert was sent to Mr. Bryan's home in Nebraska, and in Mr. Bryan's library were made 10 records, each record consisting of an extract from one of Mr. Bryan's speeches.

If he or any other candidate should start out to make speeches and spoke six days a week between July 1st and November 1st, and should address an audience of 3 000 people every afternoon and another audience of 3,000 people every evening, if none of these people were the same people (which would be physically impossible if he spoke twice on the same day, which would necessitate in many cases speaking twice in the same town) he would only have addressed 500,000 people, instead of 5,000,000, as would be easily possible with his 10 records.

BISHOP BRENT.

Bishop Charles H. Brent, who was recently elected bishop of Washington diocese, will not reach a final decision in the matter until after he arrived at Washington and confers with the standing committee of the Protestant Episcopal Church. Bishop Brent will leave Manila June 30, going first to Boston and thence to Washington. Bishop Brent says he feels that his duty lies in the Philippines but he may after conferring with the commit ee accept the Washington see.

A SUGGESTION.

The undersigned suggests that his honor, or those in "authority," instead of enforcing nonsensical blue laws ought to put in their time trying to make the Electric Light Company live up to their contract—that is, give the city the candle power light stipulated in their contract From observations of the present light from the arc lamps the city has been buncoed.

TWIN SISTERS BECOME TWIN BROTHERS' WIVES.

A minister's sermon on "Love's Old Sweet Story" is directly responsible for a triple marriage at Spokane, Wash., yesterday, in which three sisters, two of them twins, and twin brothers and their uncle were the contracting parties. The uncle married the youngest of the three sisters.

The couples are Sam Crockett, aged 25, and Ollie Engle, aged 23; Miles Crockett, aged 25, and Fannie Engle, aged 23; Alfred Olson, aged 37, and Elizabeth Engle. The bridegrooms all live at Tekoa, and the brides have lived in Farmington, a nearby town. The marriages took place at the Halliday Hotel, and the Rev. James Hanaver, a Baptist minister, of Tekoa, performed the ceremonies.

The Crocketts are the sons of Captain John Crockett, a pioneer farmer, who came into the Palouse country thirty years ago. The three girls are daughters of Dr. Engle, who came to Farmington about five years ago and settled on a farm about four miles from the Crocketts.

"A week or so ago," said the Rev. Mr. Hanaver, in discussing the ceremonies, "I had occasion to preach a sermon on the power of love. It was a sermon parallel to one which I have frequently delivered to my congregation in North Carolina, and I think the marriage of the three couples, who were attending my church, is the culmination of my sermon."

WOMAN STARVED TO DEATH.

Mrs. Louisa Jane Thompson, aged 38, wife of Rev. Adam Thompson, leader of a new cult at Zion City, near Chicago, died under circumstances which have prompted the authorities to begin an investigation. Mrs. Thompson died last week and was buried Friday. Those who saw the body say it was frightfully emaciated, and the police were informed by neighbors that Mrs. Thompson was starved in an attempt to "expel devils." After her death the watchers declared her "faith was not strong enough." They buried the body quietly. The case is similar to that of Mrs. Leta Greenhart, an aged woman, who was tortured for days by "devil chasers," who broke nearly every bone in her body by trying to "beat the evil spirits that possessed her." The old woman died in agony. Her son and daughter were arrested. They refused to testify against their mother's tormenters and the case was dismissed for lack of evidence. For a time "the devil chasers" left Zion City. The present cult is known as "Devil Fasters" The members believe in starvation as a means of curing disease.

WANTS LARGE STANDING ARMY

Assistant Secretary of War Robert Shaw Oliver made public yesterday President Roosevelt's plan for a standing army of 250,000 men, divided into eight great army corps, which is to be ready in two years or less for any emergency. Secretary Oliver intimated that the scheme had been worked out so thoroughly that the personnel of the War Department, no matter what changes may come about, will not affect the success of an undertaking which has engaged the president's keen interest for several years. Recent legislation affecting state militia has been directed toward the purpose which the president desires to accomplish.

The standing army of 250,000 will be made up, according to Secretary Oliver, of the regular establishment and the United States volunteers from every state, the latter to be trained so thoroughly in eight great instruction camps that their efficiency will be hardly less than that of the regulars. To bring this about it is proposed to school 40,000 or 50,000 volunteer troops at a time annually in each of the big camps of instruction.

KILLED HER ASSAILANT.

In an attempt to defend herself from W. M. Samples, who she claimed, was rushing at her with a sharp knife, Mrs. Roxie Sanders, of Charleston, W. Va., Sunday night shot and instantly killed her assailant, the charge of shot from a double-barreled shotgun penetrating his breast and heart. Mrs. Sanders' husband left home Saturday morning after some trouble with his wife, and it is presumed that Samples, knowing that the woman was in the house alone, thought it was a good time to attack her. According to the story of the woman, Samples had been drinking when he came to the house. He talked with her a short time, then grabbed her. She backed to the corner and drew a knife. The gun was in the corner, and, jerking loose from her assailant, she picked it up and fired directly at Samples, who fell dead at her feet.

CHARGE UNREASONABLE RATES.

Declaring that the St. Louis Southwestern Railway Company has arbitrarily and unjustly increased its rates on the transportation of fertilizer from Shreveport, La., to points in Arkansas, and discriminated in favor of factories at Little Rock, the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company, on Saturday filed complaint with the interstate commerce commission. The complaint alleges that in 1895 when the company's started its factory at Shreveport the railroad wrote them, declaring that if they instituted complaint against the rates then in force, a "re-adjustment of the tariffs to the railroad's own satisfaction" would be instituted. The petitioners aver that this "re-adjustment" has been made, and declare that the higher rates are unreasonable. The new rates, at which complaint is made, became effective in January, 1908.

THE QUEEN A MOTHER.

A dispatch from La Granja says Queen Victoria of Spain became the mother of a son a few minutes after 1 o'clock yesterday morning. There is great rejoicing throughout the nation on the arrival of this second heir of King Alfonso, and the populace is immensely pleased at the glad event. Queen Victoria of Spain was the Princess Ena of Battenberg, and her first son, who will in time succeed to the throne of Spain, was born May 10, 1907. By title this son is the Prince of the Asturias, and only recently was taken into the First Regiment of the Guards and then vested with his first uniform.

Application Refused.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Va., June 23.—The Corporation Commission today decided to grant the application of the R., F. & R. R. to be allowed to impose penalty on passengers who board trains without tickets. The effect of the decision is to permit passengers between Richmond and Washington to enjoy the two cent Virginia rate while paying a slighly increased fare between Alexandria and Washington.

Frightful Slaughter in Persia.

Teheran, June 23.—A crisis was reached in the internal troubles of Persia today when a company of Cossacks surrounded the house of parliament and demanded that a number of political prisoners who had been arrested on the order of the shah be surrendered. The request was met by shots from the parliament building, several Cossacks being killed.

Reinforcements immediately joined the attacking party and heavy artillery was drawn up in front of the building. Firing has been going on for some time, though it is impossible at this hour to give the details of the engagement. The parliament buildings are entirely surrounded by troops.

It is feared that today's outbreak will result in the overthrowof the shah, who is still in the summer palace at Baghshah, under a heavy guard of his soldiers.

The assembly has cut away from the shah, owing to the recognized incompetency of the recently formed cabinet, which stands in abject fear of the ruler and has refused to do anything to help check the spreading disorder.

The assembly has announced to the people that it can now take whatever course it choses.

The present activity of the Cossacks is taken to mean that Russia has at last decided to act with an iron hand and save the Persian empire from disruption. The firing on the Cossacks will no doubt stimulate the Russian government to adopt the most stringent repressive measures.

Teheran, Persia, June 23.—Eight hundred persons, men, women and children, publicans and soldiery, were killed here today in the bloodiest massacre of the century. Tonight the city is a shamble. Rioters surge through the streets and a bloody reign of terror is sweeping the entire country. The carnage resulting from direct orders of the shah started in the streets of the city today when the imperial artillery, opening fire on the mob which surrounded the capital, mowed down hundreds in a leaden hail.

Maddened by the sight of blood the troops and citizens mingled in an indescribable free-for-all butchery.

Women and children were not spared. The bodies of the dead in many cases were mutilated beyond recognition. Limbs were chopped off, eyes gouged out and noses and tongues slashed from the dead bodies. Dead bodies of women were not spared, and indescribable outrages occurred on every hand. Eighteen reform leaders were dragged before the Shah and without even the formality of a trial or courtmartial were condemned to death. Before the order could be executed in military style the mob seized the men and they were literally cut to pieces with sabres and daggers before they could be stood up to be shot.

The maddened mob of bloodthirsty troops were headed by leaders of the reactionary party who encouraged the slaughter, and waving bloody garments of their slain victims urged the troops on to vengeance.

Following the butchery terror-stricken refugees who escaped the first swings of the maddened troops' sabres and lances, fled from the city and drunken cavalry men are now in pursuit of the refugees. The deserted district fell a prey to plunder and the city is now given over to loot and lust.

Couriers and signal codes have served to spread the news like wildfire throughout all Persia and the entire nation is said to be in a mad revolt.

The outbreak had been threatened for several days and was precipitated by an attack made on the house of parliament by a company of Cossacks soldiers, presumably acting on orders from the Russian government which had been trying by peaceful means to check the widespread disorder of the empire.

Constantinople, June 23.—The Persian town of Urmia was ravaged by bands of wild Kurdish soldiers today, who attacked the Mosques, where many of the populace took refuge, and after firing the buildings threw many of those who resisted into the flames.

The Kurds sacked the town and carried away everything of value.

Their depredations were extended into the surrounding territory, and the people fled to neighboring towns.

The Kurds were goaded to madness by the fact that they had not been paid for some months by the Turkish government. Knowing the present weakness of the Persian government, they decided to avenge themselves on the hapless Persian villagers.

Washington, June 23.—Dispatches were received at the State Department today from W. F. Doty, American Consul at Tabriz, Persia, asking permission to proceed Urumia to confer with the authorities there with securing protection for American missionaries whose safety is menaced by the band of roving Kurds. Hewas directed to confer with the American legation in Persia.

The shah's only support now is his weak-kneed cabinet and his soldiery. The assembly has cut loose from him and advised the people to take any steps to be avenged on the shah. It is certain that the outbreak of today will call for summary action by Russia. It is reported that the Russian troops, which were stationed along the frontier, are now hastening to the Persian capital.

The ultimate over throw of the shah is believed to be the only possible result of today's butchery. It is certain that the powers will not permit him to continue the slaughter of his people and he will never be able to placate them after this outrage.

The Ward-Reid Wedding.

London, June 23.—The marriage of Miss Jean Reid, daughter of Whitelaw Reid, American Ambassador to Great Britain, to the Hon. John Hubert Ward, took place at the Church Chapel Royal, St. James Palace, this afternoon. Not since the Prince of Wales was married has a wedding ceremony taken place in circumstances of such pomp and majesty.

After the wedding a reception was held at Dorchester House, to which all fashionable London and many Americans who could not be accommodated at the chapel were invited. Shortly after Mr. and Mrs. Ward started on their honeymoon. They will be away until the end of September and on their return will make their home in Lord Dudley's house in Carlton Gardens. This is one of the finest houses in London and the Wards will occupy it during Lord Dudley's stay in Australia.

Prince and Princess of Wales, Princess Victoria, Duke and Duchess of Connaught, Princess Patricia of Connaught, Duke of Fife, Prince and Princess of Teck, Grand Duke Michael of Russia and Princess Torby of Russia were present.

The queen gave the bride a diamond bracelet and the king and queen presented a silver cruet to the bridegroom. Mr. and Mrs. Reid gave the bridegroom a dozen silver plates and a magnificent automobile.

Race War in Texas.

Houston, Texas, June 23.—With all Hemphill practically divided into two armed camps of negroes and whites, each bent on exterminating the opposing faction, the race war started in Sabin county following the lynching of nine negroes, promises to become the worst in years. State Rangers are en route to the scene, but it is doubtful if they can arrive in time to prevent open fighting.

White men are determined to drive out all negroes. The blacks are just as determined in seeking revenge for the lynching of nine of their fellows.

Beaumont may become the scene of another lynching as a result of the outbreak. P. Price, negro, formerly employed by Johnson, who confessed to killing the latter, and Bob Wright, a relative of Johnson, who has been implicated by Price, are under guard in the jail there. Threats of raising a mob to go to Beaumont and hang both, are openly made.

Second Son to Queen Victoria.

Madrid, June 23.—The birth of a second son to Queen Victoria of Spain at an early hour this morning is being celebrated throughout the entire nation. The birth occurred at La Granja palace. The queen's accouchment occurred several days earlier than expected. The queen mother is reported as doing nicely.

The dowager queen and other members of the royal household were present. As is the custom on the birth of royal children, King Alfonso commuted a death sentence, the execution being set for an hour immediately following the birth.

The king personally presented the royal infant to the state functionaries with many comments of satisfaction and pride. The formal registration of the birth took place in the throne room today before a notable company of military and civil authorities. Bishop Segovia, the premier, minister of marine and high court officials witnessed the ceremony.

Suffering from Gall Stones.

Utica, N. Y., June 23.—Congressman Sherman, republican vice presidential nominee, was taken to a hospital in Cleveland, Ohio, in a critical condition this morning. A surgeon was summoned and Mr. Sherman's family was rushing to Cleveland at 9 o'clock this morning. Mr. Sherman is suffering from gallstones. Until an examination of his condition can be made at the hospital it will not be known how serious his condition is.

It is stated that the candidate had frequently been troubled with the complaint from which he is now suffering.

On Mr. Sherman's arrival at the hospital Dr. Dudley P. Allen, a well-known operating surgeon, was called into consultation with Dr. Carter, in charge of the case. A statement will probably be issued after the consultation.

It was said at the hospital that there is scarcely any probability that an operation will be performed.

Death of W. B. Leeds.

New York, June 23.—Cables from Paris received in Wall street today tell of the death there of W. B. Leeds, formerly president of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway. No details of Mr. Leeds' death have been received. He has been in failing health for some time. Mr. Leeds died at the Hotel Ritz Paris. His second wife, Mrs. Nonnie Worthington Leeds, was at his bedside. His union with the present Mrs. Leeds cost the financier $1,000,000, he having paid that sum to his first wife as alimony after a sensational divorce suit. While it is declared possible to state exactly what the fortune of the dead financier was, conservative estimates place it at $40,000,000.

President to Visit New London.

Oyster Bay, June 23.—President Roosevelt is going to help root the sons of John Harvard on to victory in the annual races to be rowed over the Thames Thursday.

President Roosevelt and the members of his entire family will leave tomorrow afternoon for New London on the yacht Mayflower. It will be a strictly family party and the president will seek to avoid any formal recognition of his presence at the race.

Trouble in Sumatra.

The Hague, June 23.—As a protest against excessive taxation the natives of West Sumatra are in a state of violent rebellion. The fighting and rioting have extended throughout the Province of Padang, and Dutch troops are being hurried to the scene in an attempt to quell the uprising. Three battles are reported at Lake Singkorah, with a heavy loss on both sides.

The situation is so serious that the Dutch government is preparing to remove the women and children from the affected Province.

Frederick Lynch, Johnson's manager, is authority for the statement that Johnson's name will not be presented to the Denver convention as a vice presidential candidate.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section continued warm and generally fair weather tonight and Wednesday; variable winds.

THE WARM WAVE.

The torrid wave which set in at the close of last week was in evidence throughout last night. There was a light northeasterly breeze during the day, which, however, was by no means refreshing, while the mercury was forging itself among the nineties. Toward the close of the day the breeze died out, when conditions became more sultry, driving people from their houses to the pavement or doorsteps. Some hied themselves to the river front, but the stream was glassy, and minus ripples; hence but little relief was found. The excursion steamers which landed here were crowded with Washingtonians who were endeavoring to escape the heat of the city, and their numbers were augmented by Alexandrians who had sweltered during the day under the high temperature. At an early hour this morning it was seen that old Sol would reign supreme again today. The mercury soon began to climb, rendering conditions akin to those of yesterday.

THE NEW BONDS.

There was handed to the auditor this morning by the president of one of the national banks acceptances of new bonds to the amount of $49,000. In addition to being the largest amount handed in by any one person, it also represents to the amount of forty five thousand bonds held four decades ago by one who was among Alexandria's most prosperous and liberal citizens. The bonds have thus been transmitted from sire to son and daughter, and the new bonds will perhaps at the end of another three decades be held, or partly held, by the family descendants of those who originally owned them in 1858.

The Citizens' National Bank of this city sent $43,000 of the present outstanding bonds of the city to the auditor's office this morning to be exchanged for the new four per bonds, shortly to be issued.

PROMINENT THOROUGHFARE.

The alley known as Market Space is a prominent thoroughfare. People who have business with the police station or market use this alley. One of Alexandria's prominent business men is located there, not only for business, but, for a home, and he has spent much money in improving his property. It was the rule in by-gone days to clean this alley every market day. Now it is the custom to clean it once in six weeks and its condition at times as dreadful, decayed vegetables, etc., being scattered about, causing a nuisance. When everything was dry and one had nothing to do on Sunday but criticise, Royal street from King to Cameron was dirty and unsanitary. The one responsible for the condition of affairs is as hard to find as it is to discern who is responsible for the enforcement of the Sunday law—no one seeming to want the honor.

RIVER NOTES.

The steamship Wilhelmina, which arrived here last week from Port Tampa, Fla., with phosphate rock to the Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Company, left yesterday for Port Tampa where she will load again for this port.

The British steamship Nanetta, partly loaded with guano for Washington, anchored off this port late yesterday evening. She proceeded up the river at an early this morning.

The Norweigan steamer Parran, loaded with guano from Guanico, Venezuela, for Washington, is on her way to the latter port.

The schooner Isaac Solomon, loaded with lumber by Smoot & Co., has sailed for the lower river.

MISSING CHILDREN.

May Phillips, 15 years old, and her brother Hallen are missing from their home near Fort Hunt. Ira G. Phillips, their father, told the Washington police in appealing to them that he gave his children $3 Sunday to go to Luna Park, and that they failed to return. Mr. Phillips went to the resort but after searching could find no trace of them. The girl described as slender, of dark complexion, with light-brown hair and brown eyes. She wore a white waist, duck skirt, low tan shoes and tan stockings.

WANTS TO REPEAL SUNDAY LAWS.

It is said that a resolution will be introduced in the Board of Alderman tonight looking to the abolition of the present city law forbidding the transaction of business of any sort in Alexandria on Sundays. Should such a resolution be passed and an ordinance eventually adopted abrogating the law, the lid could be kept down as tight as ever from the fact that the State laws would still be in force and remain so until the legislature shall have abolished them.

SAYS HE IS AN ALEXANDRIAN.

ARRIVAL OF THE HOWITZERS.

The Richmond Howitzers, well-worn but hearty and happy, after a trial march of 161 miles—from Staunton to this city—arrived here about 10 o'clock this morning.

The Howitzers traveled on foot the entire distance, only a few of the guests and members taking occasionally to the carriages and wagons which were brought along.

The cannoneers broke camp at Bull Run, where they spent Sunday night, and marched to Centerville, where Jackson fought. They marched twenty-four miles Saturday to Little Georgetown and twenty miles Monday to Bull Run.

Captain John Lamb walked twenty miles Sunday. Major Henry Carter walked eighteen miles. Captain Jeter Bosher and Major L. T. Christian walked all the way.

Rev. Dr. James Power Smith preached to the battery at Haymarket Sunday. The choir of the battery furnished music.

Colonel W. H. Chapman, who has been marching with the Howitzers, returned to Richmond yesterday.

The command arrived at 11:30 o'clock last night about 3 miles from this city on the Little River Turnpike where they camped.

Upon arriving in this city the command was met by Commander W. A. Smoot and several members of Lee Camp and escorted to the Confederate Veterans' Hall, where a surprise awaited them in the way of a sumptuous repast, which had been prepared by the Ladies' Auxiliary, who did themselves proud, and made the "boys" feel much fresher after their long hike by the royal reception they received.

After the Howitzers reached the Confederate Veterans' Hall Captain Myers made a few remarks, during which he expressed the appreciation of the command for the cordial welcome it had received and the entertainment afforded. He said the Howitzers were glad they were in Alexandria where they were having a good time.

Commander Smoot subsequently introduced Comrade John M. Johnson, who extended the freedom of the city to the Howitzers and formally welcomed them on behalf of R. E. Lee Camp and the ladies' auxiliary societies. The speaker said that he regretted that the stay of the visitors would be too brief for them to take a trip to Mount Vernon.

At the close of Mr. Johnson's speech Capt. Myers introduced Capt. Powell Smith, who is the only surviving member of Stonewall Jackson's staff, and who is now a Presbyterian minister. He was a former member of the Howitzers. He made a brief but appropriate speech.

Congressman John Lamb was the next speaker. During his address he thanked the members of Lee camp and the ladies' auxiliary societies for the royal manner in which they entertained the visitors.

The lawn in the rear of the building had been arranged for the immediate convenience of the Howitzers after their long march.

Among those accompanying the battery were Capt. H. C. Carter of the Third company, Mr. James T. Grey, of the First company, and Capt. E. J. Bosher of the Second company, of the original Howitzers. The last-named walked the entire distance.

The following newspaper representatives accompanied the Howitzers: A. R. Holderby, jr., manager of the Richmond Journal; Evan R. Chesterman, of the Journal; Randolph Mason, of the News-Leader, and Dr. J. Powell Smith, of the Times-Dispatch.

The following are the officers and men composing the Howitzers:

Capt. W. M. Meyers, commanding; Captain T. M. Wortham, battalion adjutant; Lieutenants E. C. Rees; Lieutenant and Surgeon F. K. T. Warwick, First Sergeant J. T. Wood, Quartermaster Sergeant W. H. W. Wild Animals and Medicine.

A writer in the British Medical Journal thinks that an interesting essay might be written on the addition to medical remedies made by animals. It is said that it is to dogs we owe the knowledge of the fever abating properties of bark, while to the hippopotamus is attributed the use of bleeding. The story as told in Philemon Holland's translation of Pliny is as follows: "The riuer-Horse hath taught physitions one deuice in that part of their profession called Surgerie, for he finding himself ouer-grosse and fat by reason of his high feeding so continually gets forth of the water to the shore, hauing spied afore where the reeds and rushes haue bin newly cut, and where he seeth the sharpest cane and best pointed hee ets his body hard on to it to pricke a certaine veine in one of his legs, and thus by letting himself bloud maketh evacuation, whereby his body, otherwise inclining to diseases and maladies, is well eased of the superfluous humor, and hauing thus done hee stoppeth the orifice againe with mud and so stancheth the bloud and healeth the wound."

His Idea of the English.

The following illustrates Louis Philippe's idea of England and the English. He one day asked Hugo if he had ever been in England and on receiving a negative reply continued:

"Well, when you do go—for you will go—you will see how strange it is. It resembles France in nothing. Over there are order, arrangement, symmetry, cleanliness, well mowed lawns and profound silence on the streets. The passersby are as serious and as mute as specters. When, being French and alive, you speak in the street these specters look back at you and murmur with an inexpressible mixture of gravity and disdain, 'French people!' When I was in London I was walking arm in arm with my wife and sister. We were conversing in a not too loud tone of voice, for we are well bred persons, you know, yet all the passersby, bourgeois and men of the people, turned to gaze at us, and we could hear them growling behind us: 'French people! French people!'"—"Memoirs of Victor Hugo."

Rossini and the Drum.

When Rossini's "Gazza Ladra" was performed for the first time the drum in the orchestra not only excited much comment, but caused the enemies of the composer, whom they denounced as a "foolish inventor of unmusical novelties," to threaten Rossini with bodily violence. One young man, a pupil of Rolla's, gained admission to the composer's presence and declared that art had been so violently outraged by the invention that he must kill the offender. He drew a weapon, but consented to listen to argument. He had been a soldier, and when the composer asked him why there should not be a drum where there are soldiers he sheathed his knife. "Promise me, though," he said, "that you will put no drums in your future music." Rossini promised, but forgot.

The Retort Courteous.

A young man in a hurry went through the left side of a pair of swinging doors in the senate wing of the capitol at Washington last session and almost knocked over a senator who was about to push through the right side.

The young man apologized profusely. "I'm very sorry—I didn't know I was—I am in a great hurry."

"That's all right, son," said the senator. "But let me give you a piece of advice about going through doors like these. Always go through on the right side and turn to the right. Then if you meet anybody coming through and bump into him you needn't apologize. He'll be a durned fool, and it won't be necessary. Good morning."—Saturday Evening Post.

Greatly Underestimated.

"Bobby," asked his Sunday school teacher, "do you know how many disciples there were?" The little boy promptly said that he did and answered, "Twelve." Then he went on "And I know how many Pharisees there were too."

"Indeed!"

"Yes'm. There was just one less than there was disciples."

"Why, how do you know that? It is nowhere stated how many Pharisees there were."

"I thought everybody knew it," said Bobby. "The Bible says, 'Beware of the 'leven of the Pharisees,' doesn't it?"—Youth's Companion.

The Grandest.

"What is the grandest thing in the universe?" asks Victor Hugo. "A storm at sea," he answers and continues, "And what is grander than a storm at sea?" "The unclouded heaven on a starry, moonless night.' "And what is grander than these midnight skies?" "The soul of man"—a spectacular climax such as Hugo loved and still, with all its dramatic effects, the picturesque statement of a vast and sublime and mighty truth.

Tombs of the Patriarchs.

No spot in all Palestine is so jealously guarded as the haram or sacred area built above the cave where, according to tradition, lie buried the bodies of Abraham and Sarah, Isaac and Rebecca, Jacob and Leah. This haram is inclosed within a double wall, an outer one of Arab workmanship, dating from the fourteenth century, and an inner very massive one with many buttresses, which competent authorities ascribe to the days of the Herods. No Christian or Jew is, except by very special permission, allowed within these walls. The most the "unbelievers" may ordinarily do is to ascend from the street to the seventh step on one of the staircases between the walls. At a spot near the stair is a stone with a hole in it, down which, it is said, a long Bedouin lance can be thrust its whole length without reaching any obstruction. This, the Jews believe, reaches to the sacred cave itself, and in its neighborhood they assemble every Friday to mourn and pray, as they do before the wall of that other haram—the temple area—in Jerusalem.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Proving His Honesty.

"You say you have confidence in the plaintiff, Mr. Smith?"

"Yes, sir."

"State to the court, if you please, what caused this confidence."

"Why, you see, sir, there's allers reports 'bout eatin' house men, and I used to think"—

"Never mind what you thought. Tell us what you know."

"Well, sir, one day I goes down to Cooken's shop and sez to the waiter, 'Waiter,' sez I, 'give's a weal pie.' Well, just then Mr. Cooken comes up, and sez he: 'How do Mr. Smith? What ye going to have?'

"'Weal pie,' says I. 'Good,' says he; 'I'll have one tu.' So he sets down an' eats one of his own weal pies right afore me."

"Did that cause your confidence in him?"

"Yes, indeed, sir; when an eatin' house keeper sets down afore his customers an' deliberately eats one of his own weal pies no man can refuse to feel confidence. It shows him to be an honest man."—London Scraps.

A Philosopher in a Cyclone.

"I believe in optimism," said the cheerful citizen, "but there is a limit even to that. I saw a man the other day whose house had been carried away by cyclone, and he was the most cheerful citizen in town. 'Why,' I said, 'I thought you had lost your house?'

"'I did lose it,' he replied, 'but thar wus nobody in it but me at the time, an' thar wuzn't a hair o' my head hurt. The cyclone lifted the house high, all but the ground floor where I was sleepin' peaceful in my bed, an' I hain't never seen nor hearn o' that house sence! An', anyhow, I didn't have any fire insurance on it an' wuzn't able to put up a lightnin' rod, an' ef the wind hadn't took it away who knows but lightnin' would 'a' hit it, an' I've got the rheumatism so bad I couldn't run in case o' fire.'"—Atlanta Constitution.

Dream Troubles.

"Once when I was blue," said a business man, "a friend told me I was worrying over imaginary troubles. He cheered me up with a yarn about his little nephew. This little fellow's sister said one morning:

"'Oh, Gussie, I had such a lovely dream last night! I dreamed I was at a cake shop, and I had such loads of good things—ice cream, pie, strawberry shortcake, chocolates, jelly macaroons, kisses and lots of other things besides.'

"The little boy's eyes glistened. He smiled with delight.

"'And what was I eating?' he asked eagerly.

"'Oh, you wasn't there, Gussie.'

"Then, overwhelmed with sorrow, little Gussie hid his face in his hands and wept bitterly."
